

To Whom It May Concern:

There was George Burns and Gracie Allen...Ralph and Alice Cramden...George and Weezie Jefferson...and now," Garrett and Fraga". If ever you want an entertaining evening with fresh and bold comical ideas, than spend an hour or so with Hank Garrett and Grace Fraga.

From beginning to end, you will experience comical wit, political humor, and side splitting laughter. Their show is entertainment for all ages and moves right along like a "Japanese Bullet Train". We at the Professional Wrestling Hall of Fame and Museum were recently treated to this fantastic experience, and couldn't have been more pleased with their performance or with the crowd's reaction to this magical comical duo.

So, If you are ever in need to turn a frown upside down, or to make your working seminars a lot less boring, then don't hesitate to book the dynamic duo of Garrett and Fraga, you won't regret it!!!!

Sincerely,
